Financial instruments

Financial Instruments:

The company only enters into basic financial instruments that result in the recognition of financial assets and liabilities.

Short term debtors are measured at transaction price, less any impairment. Long term debtors and loan receivable are measured initially at transaction price, net of transaction costs and are subsequently measured at fair value using the effective interest method, less any impairment.

Cash is represented by cash in hand and deposits with financial institutions repayable without penalty on notice of withdrawal. Cash equivalents are readily convertible to known amounts of cash with insignificant risk of change in value.

Short term creditors are measured at transaction price. Long term creditors and loans are measured initially at transaction price, net of transaction costs and are subsequently measured at fair value using the effective interest method.

Debt instruments (other than those wholly repayable or receivable within one year), including loans and other accounts receivable and payable, are initially measured at present value of the future cash flows and subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Taxation

Taxation for the year comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in the Income Statement, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current or deferred taxation assets and liabilities are not discounted.

Current tax is recognised at the amount of tax payable using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of all timing differences that have originated but not reversed at the balance sheet date.

Timing differences arise from the inclusion of income and expenses in tax assessments in periods different from those in which they are recognised in financial statements. Deferred tax is measured using tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the year end and that are expected to apply to the reversal of the timing difference.

Unrelieved tax losses and other deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that they will be recovered against the reversal of deferred tax liabilities or other future taxable profits.
