1 Accounting Policies

Basis of measurement and preparation of accounts

The accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities effective April 2008.

Other accounting policies

Foreign currencies

Assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rates of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rates of exchange ruling at the date of the transaction. Debtors and creditors at the balance sheet date are stated at the recorded rate unless translation at the rate ruling at the balance sheet date would result in a material exchange gain or loss. Any exchange differences realised on settlement are taken into account in arriving at the operating profit in that year.

Going concern

These Financial Statements have been prepared under the Going Concern basis, subject to the continued support of the company's bank and directors.
