1.5. Taxation

The tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from profit as reported in the statement of comprehensive income because of items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other year and items that are never taxable or deductible. The company's liability for current tax is calculated using taxweatesethal house from groatest includated that have dream groatest includated that the groatest includated that have dream groatest includated that the groatest includated the groatest includated that the groatest includated that the groatest includated the groatest includated that the groatest includated the groatest includated that the groatest includated the groatest includate

Deferred tax is recognised on timing differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable timing differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all taxable timing differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all taxable timing differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all taxable timing differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all taxable timing differences with the computation of taxable profits on the extendible taxable timing differences with the computation of taxable profit. The senting amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient tax assets is reviewed.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset rearised, based on tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset rearised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period. Deferred tax liabilities are presented within provisions for liabilities and deferred tax assets within debtors. The measurement of deferred tax liabilities are presented within debtors. The measurement of deferred tax liabilities are provided to the proposed tax assets within debtors. The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and asset reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Company expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Current or deferred tax for the year is recognised in profit or loss, except when they related to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively.
