COMHAIRLE NAN EILEAN SIAR

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS)

(SCOTLAND) ACT 1997

NOTICE OF CANCELLATION AND RE-DESIGNATION OF

STORNOWAY CONSERVATION AREA

NOTICE is hereby given that Comhairle nan Eilean Siar has cancelled the existing Stornoway Conservation Area (as last amended in 1996) and simultaneously re-designated it with altered boundaries for the purposes of Section 61 and 62 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) (Scotland) Act 1997.

The previous Conservation Area has been amended to include: Gates, railings, walls and other means of enclosure fronting the road in sections of: Goathill Road (no.1,3,5,7,8,9,10,11,12,14,15,16,18,19,20,21,22,24,25,26,27,28,29,30); Goathill Crescent (no. 1,3,5,6,7,8,9 10,11,12,14,15,18,20,22,22a), and; Churchill Drive (no.1). The boundaries of the newly designated Conservation Area more accurately reflect the full extent of areas of architectural or historic interest within Stornoway.

The main effects of designation are that it is not possible to demolish 'buildings' (which includes boundary walls and railings) or implement some other development, without prior notification or consent from Comhairle nan Eilean Siar as Planning Authority. In assessing development proposals within Conservation Areas Comhairle nan Eilean Siar will give special consideration to the preservation or enhancement of the character or appearance of the area.

A plan of the Stornoway Conservation Area showing the amended boundary together with a full street index is available for public inspection (free of charge) during normal Comhairle opening hours, which are 9am-5pm, Monday to Friday, at the Council office in Stornoway (Sandwich Road, Stornoway, Isle of Lewis, HS1 2BW) or on the Comhairle's website at www.cne-siar.gov.uk/planningservice/conservation/stornoway.asp (2246133)

ACQUISITION & DISPOSAL OF LAND

TRANSPORT FOR LONDON

NOTICE FOR THE PURPOSE OF THE CRICHEL DOWN RULES PROPOSED DISPOSAL OF THE FOLLOWING PROPERTY/ PROPERTIES ("THE LAND"):

129 Western Avenue, Acton, London W3 6RN

The Land has been declared surplus to requirements by Transport for London ("TfL") and is being put forward for disposal. The Cricchel Down Rules ("the Rules") require Government Departments under certain circumstances to offer back surplus land to the former owner or successor in title or sitting tenant for sale at market value. Statutory bodies holding land that has been compulsorily purchased are recommended to follow the Rules and TfL has decided to do so in relation to the Land.

Under the Rules, former owners or their successors in title (or in priority to them, certain residential sitting tenants with long term security of tenure) may be entitled to purchase the land formerly in their ownership (or in the case of sitting tenants, the land comprising their dwelling) at current market value subject to certain exceptions set out in the Rules which may be of application.

TfL does not consider that the Land falls within one or more the exceptions in the Rules and, therefore, it is obliged to offer back the Land to the former owner or their successor in title.

If you are the former owner of the Land or their successor in title and you wish to purchase the land formerly in your ownership or in your predecessor in title's ownership, please respond to this advertisement in writing within two months of the date of its publication. Your response must set out the basis for your claim that you are the former owner of the Land or successor in title to the former owner and confirm your intention to purchase the Land at current market value. If no such notice intention to purchase which qualifies under the Rules is received, TfL intends to sell the Land at the expiry of the two month period.

Former owners or their successors in title responding to this advertisement should do so in person or through their solicitors or agents by writing to:

Erica Rabone, BNP Paribas Real Estate UK, 5 Aldermanbury Square, London, EC2V 7BP

The Land has been declared surplus to requirements by Transport for London ("TfL") and is being put forward for disposal. The Crichton Down Rules ("the Rules") require Government Departments under certain circumstances to offer back surplus land to the former owner or successor in title or sitting tenant for sale at market value. Statutory bodies holding land that has been compulsorily purchased are recommended to follow the Rules and TfL has decided to do so in relation to the Land.

Under the Rules, former owners or their successors in title (or in priority to them, certain residential sitting tenants with long term security of tenure) may be entitled to purchase the land formerly in their ownership (or in the case of sitting tenants, the land comprising their dwelling) at current market value subject to certain exceptions set out in the Rules which may be of application. If these exceptions were to be applied then there would be no entitlement to purchase the land in question.

TfL considers that the Land falls within one or more the exceptions in the Rules and, therefore, it is not obliged to offer back any of the Land to the former owner or their successor in title.

If you are the former owner of the Land or their successor in title and you:

- consider TfL's assessment that the Land falls within one or more exceptions in the Rules to be incorrect; and
 - wish to purchase, at current market value, the land formerly in your ownership or in your predecessor in title's ownership
- please respond to this advertisement in writing within two months of the date of its publication explaining the grounds for your challenge to TfL's assessment, setting out the basis for your claim that you are the former owner of the Land or successor in title to the former owner and confirming your intention to purchase the Land. If no such challenge to TfL's assessment and notice of intention to purchase which qualifies under the Rules is received, TfL intends to sell the Land at the expiry of the two month period.

Former owners or their successors in title responding to this advertisement should do so in person or through their solicitors or agents by writing to:

Terms and Conditions Relating to Submission of Notices

The Gazette (which includes the London, Belfast and Edinburgh Gazette) is the Official Public Record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It has been published by Authority since 1665. The Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "The Gazette" shall include the London, Belfast and Edinburgh and any supplements to the Gazette, as well as all mediums, including the online and paper versions of the Gazette.

The Gazette is published by the Publisher (as defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office at The National Archives. Notices received for publication can fall under the following broad headings:

Church, Companies, Education and Qualifications, Environment and Infrastructure, Health and Medicine, Money, Parliament and Assemblies, People, Royal Family and State. Further information can be found at www.thegazette.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to The Gazette. By submitting Notices, howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.thegazette.co.uk (the "Website") or by email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. Where the Advertiser is acting as an agent or as a representative of a principal, the Advertiser warrants that the principal agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified terms and conditions. By submitting Notices to The Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser, including any principal, agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions

1.1 In these Terms and Conditions: "Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has requested to place a Notice in The Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal; "Authorised Scale of Charges" means the scale of charges set out at in the printed copy of the Gazette or at <https://www.thegazette.co.uk/place-notice/pricing> as modified from time to time; "Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges; "Notice" means all advertisements and state, public, legal or other notices (without limitation) placed in The Gazette; "Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited, with registered company number 03049649.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and

1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the parties in relation to the publication of Notices in The Gazette and which every Notice shall be subject to. For the avoidance of doubt, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail over any other terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing which the parties agree shall not apply, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher reserves the right, to be exercised at its sole and absolute discretion, to make reasonable efforts to verify the validity of the Advertiser.

4 The Publisher may, at its sole and absolute discretion, edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser will not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;

4.5 any additions, amendments or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and

4.6 subject to clause 5 below, no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1 - 4.5 above) shall be made without confirmation from the Advertiser.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Advertiser agrees and accepts that, subject to the limited rights to edit any Notice referred to above, it is the Advertiser that shall be solely responsible for the content of any Notice, including its validity and accuracy and that the Publisher shall not be responsible for, nor shall have any liability in respect of such content in any way whatsoever.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication or the timing of any publication of a Notice, such decision to be final. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legal, statutory and/or procedural requirements and accuracy relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice, in the publisher's sole opinion, may not comply with any such requirements. In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of any action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 Neither the Publisher nor The National Archives (or any successor organisation) (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and/or employees) shall be liable for any liabilities, losses, damages, expenses, costs (including all interest, penalties, legal costs (including on a full indemnity basis) and other professional costs and/or expenses) suffered or incurred, howsoever arising (including negligence), whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher, The National Archives and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party (including, without limitation, any principal of the Advertiser) or arising out of or made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude any liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's or The National Archives' negligence or the negligence of the their agents, subcontractors and/or or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 6 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error including which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon becoming aware of such error, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity. Both parties agree (including on behalf of any principal, if applicable) that this shall be the sole remedy of the Advertiser (including any principal, if applicable) and full extent of the limit of the Publishers liability in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes, in its sole opinion, an Advertiser is submitting Notices in bad faith, is in breach of clause 11 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in breach of these Terms and Conditions or has breached such Terms and Conditions previously, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by the Advertiser and may, at its sole and absolute discretion, delay publication of those Notices until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in The Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of The Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading, nor does it contain potentially fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any law (statutory or otherwise) nor is it in any way illegal, defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice (as amended and updated from time to time), nor is it subject to any court order prohibiting such publication.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise, relating to the placing of any Notices.

13 The Advertiser agrees to fully indemnify and hold the Publisher and The National Archives (or any successor organisation), including any affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and employees harmless from all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including, without limitation) any direct, indirect, consequential and/or special losses and/or damage, loss of profit, loss of reputation and/or goodwill and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other professional costs and/or expenses (including legal costs) suffered or incurred (including negligence) in respect of any matter arising out of, in connection with or relating to any Notice, including (without limitation) in respect of any claim and/or demand (including threatened and/or potential claims or demands) made by any third party which may constitute a breach, threatened and/or potential breach by the Advertiser (or their principal) of these Terms and Conditions or any breach and/or potential breach by the Advertiser of any law and/or any of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such applicable claims, demands or potential claims or demands are handled but the Publisher shall retain the sole, absolute and final decision on all aspects of any matter arising from the aforementioned indemnity, including the choice of instructing legal representatives, steps taken in or related litigation and/or decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall use best endeavours to provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request including in respect of any principal (if applicable) and including, without limitation, the provision of and/or access to witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents and/or any evidence, including supporting any associated litigation and/or dispute resolution process.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.thegazette.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice, as well as from any other medium in which the Notice has been placed that is controlled by The Gazette, where possible. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim, threatened or suspected claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole and absolute discretion of the Publisher, whose decision in respect of such matter shall be final. Other than withdrawal of a Notice following a claim or threatened claim, withdrawal of a Notice post-publication shall take place only upon the written instructions of The National Archives (or any successor organisation) or if there is a credible claim that the continuing presence of a Notice endangers an individual's personal safety or a request is received from any applicable regulatory and/or enforcement authorities.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in The Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher for and on behalf of the Crown, all rights, including but not limited to, copyright and/or other such intellectual property rights (as applicable) in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity in respect of any Notice (including any activity in the preparation of such Notice for publication in The Gazette) by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party. For the avoidance of doubt, all Notices and any content therein shall be Crown copyright and may be subject to the Open Government Licence (or any variation thereof).

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of The Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible in the public interest and that the information contained in the Notices published in The Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose and that such use may be beyond the control of The Gazette. In such instances, the Publisher accepts and the Advertiser agrees that the Publisher shall have no liability whatsoever in respect of such use by third parties.
