PORTS & HARBOURS

MARINE MANAGEMENT ORGANISATION
HARBOURS ACT 1964 (AS AMENDED)
THE POOLE HARBOUR (WORKS) REVISION ORDER 2015

NOTICE IS HERBY GIVEN that the Marine Management Organisation (MMO) has determined the application for The Poole Harbour (Works) Revision Order 2015 ("the Order") made on behalf of Poole Harbour Commissioners ("the Applicant"), under Section 14 of the Harbours Act 1964 ("the Act") on 06 June 2014.

The Order authorises the development and modernisation of the commercial Port infrastructure consisting of the extension of and construction of quays, the infilling of Poole marina and the deepening of existing berths. The improvements are considered necessary to ensure the ports long term viability.

The MMO has taken into consideration all matters listed in paragraph 19(1) of Schedule 3 to the Act, but in particular, the Environmental Statement (ES) supplied with the application, the responses to consultation and all representations made.

Public notices were placed in this publication inviting representations in accordance with the Act.

The MMO has made minor modifications to the drafting of the Order that it considers appropriate.

The MMO concluded that the environmental impacts of the works authorised by the Order had been adequately identified, described and assessed and is satisfied that the mitigation proposed in the ES is sufficient, in combination with the conditions applied to the associated marine licence, to enable the approval of the application.

The MMO is satisfied the Order is desirable in respect of purposes set out in section 14(2)(b) of the Act and has authorised making of the Order with amendments and modifications which it considers necessary and appropriate.

The Order, associated marine licence and full details of the decision, including the environmental information provided, the main reasons and considerations on which the decision was based can be found at http://www.marinemangement.org.uk/licensing/public\_register/harbour.htm.

The Order comes into force on 10 July 2015

Any person who wishes to challenge the validity of the decision to make the Order, may, within 6 weeks from the date on which the Order becomes operative, make an application for that purpose to the High Court.

HIGHWAYS ENGLAND
REGULATION 8 INFRASTRUCTURE PLANNING (COMPULSORY ACQUISITION) REGULATIONS 2010
THE A14 CAMBRIDGE TO HUNTINGDON IMPROVEMENT SCHEME DEVELOPMENT CONSENT ORDER (PLANNING
INSPECTORATE REFERENCE: TR010018)
NOTICE OF PROPOSED PROVISION FOR POWERS OF COMPULSORY ACQUISITION IN RESPECT OF ADDITIONAL LAND

On 31 December 2014 Highways England Company Limited, of Bridge House, 1 Walnut Tree Close, Guildford GU1 4LZ ("the Applicant") submitted, pursuant to section 37 of the Planning Act 2008, an application ("the Application") for a Development Consent Order ("the Development Consent Order" / "the DCO") for the A14 Cambridge to Huntingdon Improvement Scheme ("the Scheme") to the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government ("the Secretary of State") c/o The Planning Inspectorate. The Application was accepted for examination by the Planning Inspectorate on 27 January 2015 and the examination of the Application is on-going. The Application has been given the Planning Inspectorate reference number TR010018.

On 22 July 2015 the Applicant submitted to the Secretary of State a request for the Development Consent Order to include authorisation for the compulsory acquisition of interests in and rights over additional land for the Scheme ("the Proposed Provision"). The request for the Proposed Provision was subsequently accepted by the Secretary of State on 30 July 2015. This means that the proposed compulsory acquisition of the additional land will be considered as part of the examination of the Application.

SUMMARY OF THE SCHEME

The Application seeks development consent for the A14 Cambridge to Huntingdon improvement scheme in the East of England region, wholly located within the administrative area of Cambridgeshire County Council and passing through the administrative areas of Huntingdonshire District Council and South Cambridgeshire District Council.

The main aspects of the Scheme comprise:

1. widening of the A1 between Brampton and Alconbury over a length of approximately 5.6 km (3.5 miles) from the existing two lane dual carriageway to a three lane dual carriageway. Between Alconbury and Brampton Hut this would generally be achieved by widening on the east side of the existing road; between Brampton and Brampton Hut a new road would be constructed to the west of the existing A1 which would become the new A1. This would enable the existing carriageway over this length to form part of the new A14 Huntingdon Southern Bypass. A local access road approximately 2.5 km (1.6 miles) would link the Ellington Junction with Woolley Road;
2. a new Huntingdon Southern Bypass of approximately 20 km (12.5 miles) in length, which would provide a two lane dual carriageway between Ellington and the A1 at Brampton and a three lane dual carriageway between Brampton and Swavesey. The new bypass would cross over the River Great Ouse and the East Coast mainline railway. It would include junctions with the A1 at Brampton and with the A1198 at Godmanchester;
3. downgrading the existing A14 trunk road to county road status (known as de-trunking) over approximately 21 km (13 miles) between Brampton Hut and Swavesey, as well as between Alconbury and Spittals interchange;
4. Huntingdon town centre improvements, to include the closure and demolition of the A14 viaduct over the East Coast mainline railway and Brampton Road in Huntingdon. A new link road would be constructed to improve accessibility into Huntingdon from the south and east by connecting the old A14 directly with Huntingdon Ring Road near the bus station and by constructing a new link road from Brampton Road to connect with the A14 to the west. As such, a through route for light vehicles would be maintained;
5. widening of the existing A14 over approximately 7.9 km (5 miles) to provide three lanes in each direction between Swavesey and Bar Hill and four lanes in each direction between Bar Hill and Girton;
6. widening of a 2.5 km (1.5 mile) section of the Cambridge Northern Bypass between Histon and Milton;
7. improvement of existing A14 junctions at Swavesey, Bar Hill and Girton to improve the capacity of the road, ensure compatibility with adjacent proposed developments such as Northstowe and provide improved connections for non-motorised users; and

8. a new local access road following the route of the A14 over a distance of approximately 8 km (5 miles), including construction of a dual carriageway link between the existing A14 near Fen Drayton and Swavesey junction and a single carriageway between Swavesey and Girton. The road would provide a route for local traffic between Cambridge and Huntingdon as well as providing access to properties and businesses along the corridor.

If the DCO is made by the Secretary of State for Transport, it would allow Highways England, for the purpose of constructing, operating and maintaining the Scheme, to acquire compulsorily interests in and rights over land, including the power to create and acquire new rights over land, and to take possession of and to use land temporarily.

The DCO would also make provision for development which would constitute associated development together with other ancillary matters, including those relating to the creation of new structures (such as bridges and junctions), the stopping up and replacement of existing highways (including footpaths and bridleways) and of private means of access and the creation of new highways and private means of access. The DCO would also authorise the provision of borrow pits, soil storage areas, site compounds, flood compensation areas and drainage systems in connection with the construction, operation and maintenance of the Scheme.

SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED PROVISION

The Proposed Provision seeks powers of compulsory acquisition in respect of additional land at the following locations ("the Additional Land"):

1. Woodhatch Farm – land forming part of agricultural land west of Brampton Hut Services; part of gravel track and woodland west of Woodhatch Farm; part of garden at Woodhatch Farm; and part of premises of Huntingdon Recycling Limited;
2. Ellington Junction – land forming part of agricultural land west of Brampton Hut Services;
3. Buckden Landfill Site – land forming part of grassed area adjacent to Brampton Road and agricultural land at Lodge Farm; and
4. Mill Common – land forming part of area of grassed land and trees east of Huntingdon Railway Station and south of the existing A14.

In each of the four locations, the area of additional land sought is relatively small and of a localised nature (as shown more particularly in the application documents referenced below).

The reasons why the Additional Land is required are explained below.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT OF REASONS RELATING TO THE ADDITIONAL LAND

The Additional Land included within the Proposed Provision is required for the following reasons:

Woodhatch Farm

Additional land is required to create sufficient space beside the southern boundary of the Scheme's proposed realignment of the A14 for the provision of an access track to premises at Woodhatch Farm and Huntingdon Recycling Limited from the new Ellington Junction (proposed to be created by the Scheme).

Ellington Junction

Additional land is required to enable the construction of an eastbound merge slip road and a westbound diverge slip road at the new Ellington Junction (proposed to be created by the Scheme). These east facing slip roads would be in addition to west facing slip roads already proposed at the new junction, but they would be for emergency use only, to improve operational flexibility and safety and to reduce inconvenience to the travelling public in the event of a closure of the A1 between Brampton Hut Junction and Brampton Interchange.

Buckden Landfill Site

Ecological surveys have revealed the need for the provision of two additional temporary areas and a small increase in the amount of land which is already proposed to be acquired compulsorily for the Scheme, and which is within the existing limit of land proposed to be used under the DCO. This land is required for the purposes of ecological mitigation, and is located to the north of the new Huntingdon Southern Bypass (proposed to be created by the Scheme), adjacent to and on the edge of Buckden Landfill.

Mill Common

Ecological surveys have revealed the need for additional land to provide a permanent ecological mitigation area between the Mill Common road and the southern boundary of the existing A14 (which is proposed by the Scheme to be de-trunked and to be renamed Mill Common Link).

COPIES OF THE APPLICATION DOCUMENTS

Copies of the following documents may be inspected free of charge from 5 August 2015 until 10 September 2015 (inclusive) at the times and locations set out in the table below (opening times may vary):

Terms and Conditions Relating to Submission of Notices

The Gazette (which includes the London, Belfast and Edinburgh Gazette) is the Official Public Record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It has been published by Authority since 1665. The Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "The Gazette" shall include the London, Belfast and Edinburgh and any supplements to the Gazette, as well as all mediums, including the online and paper versions of the Gazette.

The Gazette is published by the Publisher (as defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office at The National Archives. Notices received for publication can fall under the following broad headings:

Church, Companies, Education and Qualifications, Environment and Infrastructure, Health and Medicine, Money, Parliament and Assemblies, People, Royal Family and State. Further information can be found at www.thegazette.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to The Gazette. By submitting Notices, howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.thegazette.co.uk (the "Website") or by email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. Where the Advertiser is acting as an agent or as a representative of a principal, the Advertiser warrants that the principal agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified terms and conditions. By submitting Notices to The Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser, including any principal, agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions

1.1 In these Terms and Conditions: "Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has requested to place a Notice in The Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal; "Authorised Scale of Charges" means the scale of charges set out at in the printed copy of the Gazette or at <https://www.thegazette.co.uk/place-notice/pricing> as modified from time to time; "Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges; "Notice" means all advertisements and state, public, legal or other notices (without limitation) placed in The Gazette; "Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited, with registered company number 03049649.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and

1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the parties in relation to the publication of Notices in The Gazette and which every Notice shall be subject to. For the avoidance of doubt, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail over any other terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing which the parties agree shall not apply, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher reserves the right, to be exercised at its sole and absolute discretion, to make reasonable efforts to verify the validity of the Advertiser.

4 The Publisher may, at its sole and absolute discretion, edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser will not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;

4.5 any additions, amendments or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and

4.6 subject to clause 5 below, no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1 - 4.5 above) shall be made without confirmation from the Advertiser.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Advertiser agrees and accepts that, subject to the limited rights to edit any Notice referred to above, it is the Advertiser that shall be solely responsible for the content of any Notice, including its validity and accuracy and that the Publisher shall not be responsible for, nor shall have any liability in respect of such content in any way whatsoever.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication or the timing of any publication of a Notice, such decision to be final. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legal, statutory and/or procedural requirements and accuracy relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice, in the publisher's sole opinion, may not comply with any such requirements. In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of any action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 Neither the Publisher nor The National Archives (or any successor organisation) (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and/or employees) shall be liable for any liabilities, losses, damages, expenses, costs (including all interest, penalties, legal costs (including on a full indemnity basis) and other professional costs and/or expenses) suffered or incurred, howsoever arising (including negligence), whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher, The National Archives and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party (including, without limitation, any principal of the Advertiser) or arising out of or made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude any liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's or The National Archives' negligence or the negligence of the their agents, subcontractors and/or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 6 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error including which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon becoming aware of such error, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity. Both parties agree (including on behalf of any principal, if applicable) that this shall be the sole remedy of the Advertiser (including any principal, if applicable) and full extent of the limit of the Publishers liability in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes, in its sole opinion, an Advertiser is submitting Notices in bad faith, is in breach of clause 11 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in breach of these Terms and Conditions or has breached such Terms and Conditions previously, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by the Advertiser and may, at its sole and absolute discretion, delay publication of those Notices until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in The Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of The Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading, nor does it contain potentially fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any law (statutory or otherwise) nor is it in any way illegal, defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice (as amended and updated from time to time), nor is it subject to any court order prohibiting such publication.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise, relating to the placing of any Notices.

13 The Advertiser agrees to fully indemnify and hold the Publisher and The National Archives (or any successor organisation), including any affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and employees harmless from all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including, without limitation) any direct, indirect, consequential and/or special losses and/or damage, loss of profit, loss of reputation and/or goodwill and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other professional costs and/or expenses (including legal costs) suffered or incurred (including negligence) in respect of any matter arising out of, in connection with or relating to any Notice, including (without limitation) in respect of any claim and/or demand (including threatened and/or potential claims or demands) made by any third party which may constitute a breach, threatened and/or potential breach by the Advertiser (or their principal) of these Terms and Conditions or any breach and/or potential breach by the Advertiser of any law and/or any of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such applicable claims, demands or potential claims or demands are handled but the Publisher shall retain the sole, absolute and final decision on all aspects of any matter arising from the aforementioned indemnity, including the choice of instructing legal representatives, steps taken in or related litigation and/or decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall use best endeavours to provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request including in respect of any principal (if applicable) and including, without limitation, the provision of and/or access to witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents and/or any evidence, including supporting any associated litigation and/or dispute resolution process.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.thegazette.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice, as well as from any other medium in which the Notice has been placed that is controlled by The Gazette, where possible. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim, threatened or suspected claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole and absolute discretion of the Publisher, whose decision in respect of such matter shall be final. Other than withdrawal of a Notice following a claim or threatened claim, withdrawal of a Notice post-publication shall take place only upon the written instructions of The National Archives (or any successor organisation) or if there is a credible claim that the continuing presence of a Notice endangers an individual's personal safety or a request is received from any applicable regulatory and/or enforcement authorities.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in The Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher for and on behalf of the Crown, all rights, including but not limited to, copyright and/or other such intellectual property rights (as applicable) in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity in respect of any Notice (including any activity in the preparation of such Notice for publication in The Gazette) by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.
