Submitting comments to the Secretary of State does not affect the entitlement of persons to make objections to the proposed Amendments by depositing a petition in the House of Commons referred to below.

The Bill has been introduced in the House of Commons as a public Bill. In the House of Commons, by the terms of the Order made by that House, objection to the proposed Amendments may be made by depositing a Petition against them in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons not later than the end of the period of four weeks beginning with the day on which the first newspaper notice of the Amendments is published. Any such Petition must therefore be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons not later than 2pm on Friday 13 November 2015.

In the House of Lords, objection to the Bill may be made by depositing a Petition against it in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and the latest date for depositing such a petition against the Bill may be subject to an Order made by that House or, if no Order is made, will be the tenth day after that on which the Bill receives its First reading in that House. In the latter case, if this date is a Sunday, Christmas Day or Bank Holiday, or a day on which the House does not sit, the final date for depositing may be postponed.

THE NORTH WALES WIND FARMS CONNECTION ORDER (PLANNING INSPECTORATE REFERENCE EN020014)

NOTICE OF PROVISION FOR POWERS OF COMPULSORY APPLICATION IN RESPECT OF ADDITIONAL LAND

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of State for Energy and Climate Change (“Secretary of State”) has accepted an application for a Development Consent Order (“DCO”) for the construction and installation, operation and maintenance of an approximate 17 kilometre 132,000 volt (132kV) electric line above ground (electricity distribution connection) in North Wales (“the Proposed Development”), made by SP Manweb Plc (“SP Manweb”) of 3 Prenton Way, Prenton, Merseyside, CH43 3ET under the Planning Act 2008 (“the Application”). The Application was submitted to the Secretary of State on Friday 20 March 2015 and accepted for examination on Friday 17 April 2015. The examination of the Application is ongoing. The reference number applied by the Planning Inspectorate, on behalf of the Secretary of State, to the Application is EN020014.

On 16 September 2015 SP Manweb submitted to the Secretary of State a request for the DCO to include authorisation for the compulsory acquisition of interests in and rights over additional land for the Proposed Development (“the Proposed Provision”). The request for the Proposed Provision was subsequently accepted by the Secretary of State on 2 October 2015. This means that the proposed compulsory acquisition of the additional land will be considered as part of the examination of the Application.

SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED DEVELOPMENT

The Application seeks consent for the construction and installation, operation and maintenance of an approximate 17 kilometre 132,000 volt (132kV) electric line above ground (electricity distribution connection) from a collector substation at Clocaenog Forest, Denbighshire, to a terminal point located to the south of the unnamed Groesfordd Marli to Glascoed Road and the B5381 (Glascoed Road) near to St Asaph, Denbighshire comprising:

1. Construction and installation, operation and maintenance of an approximately 17 kilometre 132 kV wood pole overhead line;
2. Temporary construction compound at Broadleys farm, A453, Denbighshire and temporary storage or laydown areas along the alignment;
3. Access points for pedestrians and vehicles along the length of the route alignment for construction and maintenance;

5. Landscaping to mitigate adverse effects; and
6. Other integral works such as site preparation and clearance, tree felling or lopping and clearance of vegetation, earth works, alteration of existing services and minor street works.

If made the DCO would, amongst other things, also make provision for:

1. The compulsory acquisition by SP Manweb of rights over additional land, including the power to create new rights and impose restrictive covenants over land, and to take possession of and use land temporarily, for the purpose of constructing and installing, operating and maintaining the Proposed Development;
2. The overriding of easements and other rights over or affecting land for the Proposed Development;
3. Alterations to the public highway network and the construction of temporary and permanent accesses to the overhead line route and construction compounds;

BASINGSTOKE & DEANE BOROUGH COUNCIL
PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS)
ACT 1990 SECTION 70(8)

ALTERATIONS TO THE BOUNDARIES OF EXISTING BASINGSTOKE OLD TOWN CONSERVATIONS AREA

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council (hereinafter called "the Council") has COMPLETED A REVIEW of the BASINGSTOKE OLD TOWN CONSERVATION AREA, now referred to as the Basingstoke Town Conservation Area. In carrying out this review, the Council has exercised the powers granted by Section 69(2) of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990. The original designation of the BASINGSTOKE OLD TOWN CONSERVATION AREA was made in 1977. The review has looked at the character, the appearance and the special architectural and historic interest of the conservation area and concluded that variations to the boundary of the Basingstoke Town Conservation Area are appropriate and timely.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the areas described in the SCHEDULE ONE to this Notice are of special architectural or historic interest, and that it is desirable to preserve or enhance their character or appearance. The Council has accordingly included these areas in the Basingstoke Town Conservation Area.

The principal effects of the areas being included in the conservation area are as follows:

- 1) all planning applications for development that would affect the character of the area must be advertised and site notices posted so that the maximum opportunity for comments is given to the public before a decision is reached;
- 2) the prior approval of the Council may be required for the demolition of buildings within the Conservation Area (application for approval must be made separately not as part of an application for planning permission for the development of a site within a Conservation Area);
- 3) in most cases where any tree in a Conservation Area is cut down, topped, lopped, uprooted, wilfully damaged or wilfully destroyed there is a requirement to submit a 'Notice of Intent' to the Council. In the event that work is carried out without first giving the required notice, an offence may have been committed;
- 4) if it is intended to demolish any building or part of a building or to carry out any work which may in any way affect a tree within a Conservation Area, the advice of the Local Planning Authority should be sought;
- 5) certain householder permitted development rights are reduced or removed and;
- 6) the Council as Local Planning Authority, will exercise particular care to ensure that change, if and when it occurs, does not detract from the character or appearance of the area.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council (hereinafter called "the Council") as the Local Planning Authority in pursuance of Powers under section 69 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 (as amended) has COMPLETED A CONSERVATION AREA REVIEW and determined that the areas described in the Schedule Two to this Notice are not of special architectural or historic interest, and that it is desirable to preserve or enhance their character or appearance. The Council has accordingly deleted these areas in the Basingstoke Town Conservation Area.

The principal effects of the areas being deleted from the conservation area are as follows:

- 1) Six weeks' notice must be given to the Council before works are carried out to any tree that stands in the adjoining conservation area;
- (2) At least five working days' notice must be given before works to cut down, lop, top or uproot a dead tree, or to cut down, uproot, top or lop any other tree, within the adjoining conservation area unless the work is urgently necessary to remove an immediate risk of serious harm;
- (3) Development adjacent to or close to the conservation area will be expected to pay due regard to the character and appearance of the conservation area.

FURTHER INFORMATION including plans showing the areas included and excluded are available for public inspection on the Councils website (www.basingstoke.gov.uk) and during the hours of 10am to 4pm at Basingstoke and Deane Council, Civic Offices, London Road, Basingstoke RG21 4AH.

SCHEDULE ONE

- (i) 249 square metres of the Timberlake pedestrian road bridge.
- (ii) 5663 sq. metres of Winchester Road including Nos.1,3,5 and 7 Winchester Road (odds), Nos. 8, 15, 17&19, 21 and 23 Winchester Road.

Terms and Conditions Relating to Submission of Notices

The Gazette (which includes the London, Belfast and Edinburgh Gazette) is the Official Public Record and the United Kingdom's longest continuously published newspaper. It has been published by Authority since 1665. The Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "The Gazette" shall include the London, Belfast and Edinburgh and any supplements to the Gazette, as well as all mediums, including the online and paper versions of the Gazette.

The Gazette is published by the Publisher (as defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office at The National Archives. Notices received for publication can fall under the following broad headings:

Church, Companies, Education and Qualifications, Environment and Infrastructure, Health and Medicine, Money, Parliament and Assemblies, People, Royal Family and State. Further information can be found at www.thegazette.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to The Gazette. By submitting Notices, howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.thegazette.co.uk (the "Website") or by email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. Where the Advertiser is acting as an agent or as a representative of a principal, the Advertiser warrants that the principal agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified terms and conditions. By submitting Notices to The Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser, including any principal, agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions

1.1 In these Terms and Conditions: "Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has requested to place a Notice in The Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal; "Authorised Scale of Charges" means the scale of charges set out at in the printed copy of the Gazette or at <https://www.thegazette.co.uk/place-notice/pricing> as modified from time to time; "Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges; "Notice" means all advertisements and state, public, legal or other notices (without limitation) placed in The Gazette; "Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited, with registered company number 03049649.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and

1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the parties in relation to the publication of Notices in The Gazette and which every Notice shall be subject to. For the avoidance of doubt, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail over any other terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing which the parties agree shall not apply, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher reserves the right, to be exercised at its sole and absolute discretion, to make reasonable efforts to verify the validity of the Advertiser.

4 The Publisher may, at its sole and absolute discretion, edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser will not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;

4.5 any additions, amendments or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and

4.6 subject to clause 5 below, no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1 - 4.5 above) shall be made without confirmation from the Advertiser.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Advertiser agrees and accepts that, subject to the limited rights to edit any Notice referred to above, it is the Advertiser that shall be solely responsible for the content of any Notice, including its validity and accuracy and that the Publisher shall not be responsible for, nor shall have any liability in respect of such content in any way whatsoever.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication or the timing of any publication of a Notice, such decision to be final. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legal, statutory and/or procedural requirements and accuracy relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice, in the publisher's sole opinion, may not comply with any such requirements. In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of any action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 Neither the Publisher nor The National Archives (or any successor organisation) (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and/or employees) shall be liable for any liabilities, losses, damages, expenses, costs (including all interest, penalties, legal costs (including on a full indemnity basis) and other professional costs and/or expenses) suffered or incurred, howsoever arising (including negligence), whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher, The National Archives and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party (including, without limitation, any principal of the Advertiser) or arising out of or made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude any liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's or The National Archives' negligence or the negligence of the their agents, subcontractors and/or or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 6 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error including which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon becoming aware of such error, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity. Both parties agree (including on behalf of any principal, if applicable) that this shall be the sole remedy of the Advertiser (including any principal, if applicable) and full extent of the limit of the Publishers liability in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes, in its sole opinion, an Advertiser is submitting Notices in bad faith, is in breach of clause 11 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in breach of these Terms and Conditions or has breached such Terms and Conditions previously, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by the Advertiser and may, at its sole and absolute discretion, delay publication of those Notices until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in The Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of The Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading, nor does it contain potentially fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any law (statutory or otherwise) nor is it in any way illegal, defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice (as amended and updated from time to time), nor is it subject to any court order prohibiting such publication.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise, relating to the placing of any Notices.

13 The Advertiser agrees to fully indemnify and hold the Publisher and The National Archives (or any successor organisation), including any affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and employees harmless from all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including, without limitation) any direct, indirect, consequential and/or special losses and/or damage, loss of profit, loss of reputation and/or goodwill and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other professional costs and/or expenses (including legal costs) suffered or incurred (including negligence) in respect of any matter arising out of, in connection with or relating to any Notice, including (without limitation) in respect of any claim and/or demand (including threatened and/or potential claims or demands) made by any third party which may constitute a breach, threatened and/or potential breach by the Advertiser (or their principal) of these Terms and Conditions or any breach and/or potential breach by the Advertiser of any law and/or any of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such applicable claims, demands or potential claims or demands are handled but the Publisher shall retain the sole, absolute and final decision on all aspects of any matter arising from the aforementioned indemnity, including the choice of instructing legal representatives, steps taken in or related litigation and/or decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall use best endeavours to provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request including in respect of any principal (if applicable) and including, without limitation, the provision of and/or access to witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents and/or any evidence, including supporting any associated litigation and/or dispute resolution process.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.thegazette.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice, as well as from any other medium in which the Notice has been placed that is controlled by The Gazette, where possible. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim, threatened or suspected claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole and absolute discretion of the Publisher, whose decision in respect of such matter shall be final. Other than withdrawal of a Notice following a claim or threatened claim, withdrawal of a Notice post-publication shall take place only upon the written instructions of The National Archives (or any successor organisation) or if there is a credible claim that the continuing presence of a Notice endangers an individual's personal safety or a request is received from any applicable regulatory and/or enforcement authorities.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in The Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher for and on behalf of the Crown, all rights, including but not limited to, copyright and/or other such intellectual property rights (as applicable) in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity in respect of any Notice (including any activity in the preparation of such Notice for publication in The Gazette) by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party. For the avoidance of doubt, all Notices and any content therein shall be Crown copyright and may be subject to the Open Government Licence (or any variation thereof).

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of The Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible in the public interest and that the information contained in the Notices published in The Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose and that such use may be beyond the control of The Gazette. In such instances, the Publisher accepts and the Advertiser agrees that the Publisher shall have no liability whatsoever in respect of such use by third parties.

17 The Advertiser acknowledges and agrees that the publication of any Notice is subject to any court order and/or direction of the court or such other regulatory and/or enforcement authorities including the Information Commissioner's Office, the police, the Financial Conduct Authority (and such other related regulatory organisations), the Solicitors Regulation Authority and such other authorities as may be applicable (without limitation) and that the Publisher may delay, refuse to publish or withdraw from publication if it has received evidence to that effect and may not publish such notice until it has received written evidence from the court (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) that demonstrates that any previous order and/or direction has been withdrawn and/or is no longer applicable (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) and/or, subject to any statutory and/or applicable laws, The Gazette may share information and/or data related to the Notice and/or the Advertiser's account related to such authorities and the Advertiser hereby consents to such disclosure(s).

18 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher in writing. The Charges must be paid in full by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher in respect of the payment of such Charges (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

19 If the Advertiser wishes to make a complaint, all such complaints shall be submitted in writing to customer.services@thegazette.co.uk

20 Save in respect of The National Archives (or any successor organisation), a person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

21 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
